Applications Procedure

Program Committee: Gary Dohanich (Psychology), Fiona Inglis (Cell and Molecular Biology), Brad Taylor (Pharmacology), Guyong Wang (Structural and Cell Biology), Beth Wee (Neuroscience)

Required materials to be included in your 4+1 application:

- 1) Completed Tulane Graduate Student application form
see <https://app.applyyourself.com/?id=tulane-se>
- 2) Completed statement of purpose
- 3) GRE, MCAT, SAT, or ACT scores reported on cover page of the application form
- 4) Official Tulane undergraduate transcript (not from web)
- 5) Letter of recommendation from a Tulane faculty member (if pursuing the thesis track, the letter must be from the faculty member who will supervise the thesis)
- 6) Letter of recommendation from a second faculty member

Tulane students working toward the B.S. in Neuroscience or a related major may apply for admission. Acceptance into the program will be competitive and based on the decision of the 4+1 Neuroscience Program Committee comprised of 5 faculty members of the Neuroscience Graduate Program, including two from each campus. Application deadlines are June 1 for the following fall and November 1 for the following spring. Completed applications should be submitted to Dr. Wee.

PLEASE CONTACT DR. WEE REGARDING ADMISSIONS PROCEDURES.
